To whom it may concern

Designers Guild had done a good job of our regional office, back in 2003.

When in 2008, we felt the need of a few changes in space management, we naturally turned to them.

The assignment was accomplished - in a running office - to our complete satisfaction.

After five years of usage, we had also asked Designers Guild to cheer up some break-out areas such as the cafe, the library and an internal meeting room.

With a limited budget and without shutting anything down, they did a great job.

For GlaxoSmithKline Consumer
Healthcare Limited.
